

GENOCIDE MEMORY AND POST-SOCIALIST GRIEVANCES: RETHINKING CONTEMPORARY GERMANY

16 APRIL 2026 | 10.00-16.30

FONDAZIONE BRUNO KESSLER

AULA GRANDE

VIA SANTA CROCE, 77 | TRENTO

PROGRAM

Massimo Rospocher (Director ISIG/FBK)

Welcome

Mikko Immanen (University of Helsinki/ FBK-ISIG)

Opening words

GENOCIDE MEMORY AND ITS DISCONTENTS

10.00-12.30

Andrew I. Port (Wayne State University)

Timely Reflections on Never Again: German Vergangenheitsbewältigung Before and After October 7

Esra Özyürek (University of Cambridge)

Subcontractors of Guilt: Holocaust Memory and Muslim Belonging in Post-War Germany – What Changed After October 7?

Karolina Stenlund (University of Helsinki)

Memory Regimes and Legal Frames: A Critical History of the IHRA and the Making of Europe's Holocaust Memory

POST-SOCIALIST GRIEVANCES AND THE FAR RIGHT

14.00-16.30

Anna Saunders (University of Liverpool)

The Memorialization of 1989/90: Shifting Interpretations of Unity, Democracy and Freedom

Sebastian Gehrig (University of Sheffield)

Ideological Blind Spots: Anti-Fascist and Anti-Racist Law and Xenophobia in the German Democratic Republic

Ville Erkkilä (University of Helsinki)

Rural Rights and Political Change: The Reorganization of Property Relations in the German Democratic Republic

Scientific coordination

Mikko Immanen | University of Helsinki - FBK-ISIG

Maurizio Cau | FBK-ISIG

Info

fbk.isig@fbk.eu